Bookings

Upon payment of site fees, stallholders will be allocated a Booking Number which will be referenced by the Market Manager on your arrival on the day of the market prior to your moving to your predetermined site and setting up your stall for the day.

Insurance

To cover Third Party Property Damage/Bodily Injury, Comprehensive Motor Vehicle Insurance is mandatory for all stallholders. All food stallholders must be Food Act registered with Whitehorse Council (through the Sreatrader website).

Please note: Although Public Liability Insurance is included in the site fee, it is a strict requirement that a stallholder must have in place a current Public & Product Liability policy with a minimum of $10 million cover in the stallholder's name if they offer for sale the following: cosmetics and beauty products, medicines, potions, oils, fragrances and soaps.

Health & Safety

All stallholders must observe and demonstrate approved health & safety standards regarding manual handling, anchorage of umbrellas & gazebos, operation of LPG gas cylinders and generators and use of electrical leads. Stallholders selling and preparing food must observe and demonstrate all legally required food handling requirements.

Community Stalls

Up to three free sites, at each market, are available for recognised not for profit community organisations. Stalls may sell items and/or provide information about their activities and services.

Buskers

The activity of busking is supported as long, at the time of booking, it is considered to complement the community atmosphere of the Market. One roving busker, at any given time, may perform on site with a suitable receptacle for the receipt of unsolicited public donations within the immediate space of their performance.

Rubbish

It is the responsibility of all applicable stallholders to supply bins for customer rubbish and remove it from their site, as part of pack up time, at the conclusion of the market.

Toilets

Toilet facilities are accessed within the Burvale Hotel.

Dogs

Dogs are permitted on site but must be controlled on a lead at all times.

Smoking

The immediate proximity of the market site is a no smoking zone.

Weather

This is an all weather market. However, if prevailing conditions pose a safety risk to the site, at the discretion of the Market Manager, it will be cancelled. No refunds will apply – full or part payment will carry over to a future market date.

Conflicts & Disputes

All complaints (customer or stallholder) must be raised with the Market Manager, in the first instance, for discussion and resolution.
